Relevant Regulations Governing the Hosting of International Sporting Events in The Republic of South Africa

Article 1      Recognition of the FIFA Statutes

---

All parties involved in the organisation of the Event for which an application is received must recognise the jurisdiction of the Federation International de Football Association (FIFA), in particular, the following sections of the FIFA Statutes relating to the organisation of international matches and competitions:

Article 78      International matches and competitions

1. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for issuing provisions for organising international matches and competitions between representative teams and between League and/or club teams. No such match or competition shall take place without the prior permission of FIFA.
2. The Executive Committee may draw up further technical provisions.

Article 79      Contacts

1. Matches may not be played or sporting contacts made between members and Associations that are not Members of FIFA or provisional members of the Confederations, or their clubs, without the approval of FIFA.
2. Matches against teams whose players do not belong to a club or a League affiliated to a FIFA Member are prohibited.
3. Members and their clubs may not play on the territory of another Member without the latter's approval.

Article 80      Approval

Any Association, League or club that is affiliated to a Member cannot belong to another Member or participate in competitions on the territory of another Member without the authorisation of its current and prospective Members and of FIFA, except in exceptional

Article 2      Recognition of the SAFA Constitution

All parties involved in the organisation of the Event for which an application is received must recognise the jurisdiction of the South African Football Association (SAFA), in particular, the following sections of the SAFA Constitution relating to the organisation of international matches and competitions in the Republic of South Africa:

Article 2: SAFA shall have the following aims and objectives:

2. SAFA shall have no other objectives save for objectives provided for below and the funds be employed exclusively in the promotion of such objectives and provided further that SAFA's activities shall be limited to the Republic of South Africa. SAFA shall have the following aims and objectives:
  - 2.1 to carry on the public benefit activity of administering, developing, co-ordinating and promoting the game of football in which the participants take part in accordance with the principles as laid down in the statutes of FIFA.
  - 2.2 to improve the game of football constantly and promote, regulate and control it throughout the territory of South Africa in accordance with the principles of fair play and its unifying, educational, cultural and humanitarian values, particularly through youth and development programmes;
  - 2.3 to organise competitions in Association Football in all its forms, by defining precisely, as required, the areas of authority delegated to the various Members and Leagues of which it is composed;
  - 2.4 to draw up regulations and provisions and to ensure their enforcement;
  - 2.5 to protect the interests of its Members;
  - 2.6 to respect and prevent any infringement of the statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of SAFA, COSAFA, CAF and FIFA as well as the Laws of the Game and to ensure that these are also respected by its Members;
  - 2.7 to prevent all methods or practices which might jeopardise the integrity of matches or competitions or give rise to abuse of Association Football;
  - 2.8 to control and supervise all football matches of all forms played throughout the territory of South Africa;
  - 2.9 to manage international sporting relations connected with Association Football in all its forms;
  - 2.10 to host competitions at both National and international levels;
  - 2.11 to settle disputes arising between members or bodies or persons connected directly or indirectly with football within the jurisdiction of SAFA;
  - 2.12 to raise and administer the funds of SAFA in such a manner as SAFA may deem advisable and in particular by means of subscriptions, donations and sponsorships;
  - 2.13 to acquire and develop playing facilities including the construction of stadia;
  - 2.14 to distribute monies to its members for the protection, promotion and advancement of amateur football;
  - 2.15 to affiliate to FIFA, CAF, COSAFA and SASCOC;
  - 2.15 to do all such things as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objective or any one of them;

2.16 Subject to Article 94 below, SAFA shall have the full power and authority to do any act, matter or thing as may be required to give effect to the aims and objectives of SAFA as described herein, including, but not limited to the following powers:-

2.16.1 to engage staff on the basis of a policy of fair employment and equal opportunities;

2.16.2 to acquire assets and enter into commitments for the promotion of its aims and objectives;

2.16.3 to confer honours and awards on individuals, in recognition of their contribution to football in South Africa;

2.16.4 to grant practical and financial assistance to individuals and organisations in order to enable them to promote ideas and concepts consistent with the objects of SAFA;

2.16.5 to enter into donor funding arrangements with companies or individuals and to solicit and accept fees, donations, bequests, contributions, and subscriptions for the funds of SAFA, provided however that SAFA shall ensure that no donor will derive any monetary advantage from any monies paid to and on behalf of SAFA;

2.16.6 to take, lease, purchase or otherwise acquire premises, equipment, vehicles, furniture and other property or assets, whether movable or immovable which may be deemed necessary or convenient for any of the purposes of SAFA, and in order to provide suitable equipment, accommodation and football facilities;

2.16.7 to improve, manage, develop, exchange or lease, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account and grant options, rights and privileges in respect of, or otherwise deal with, or any part of the property and rights of SAFA;

2.16.8 subject to Article 73.8 below, to subscribe, grant subsidies out of, administer and invest the funds of SAFA in such manner as it may be deemed best to achieve the objects and purposes of SAFA;

2.16.9 to borrow, or raise money in such a manner as SAFA shall deem fit, and in particular to secure payment of any money borrowed by means of mortgage, pledge, charge or lien to secure and guarantee the due performance by SAFA of any obligation or liability it may undertake;

2.16.10 to open and operate banking accounts and to draw, make, accept, endorse, sign, discount, execute, issue cheques, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable instruments;

2.16.11 to make rules which shall not be inconsistent with the terms of this Constitution. The Rules of SAFA shall have the same force and effect as if they were incorporated in the Articles of the Constitution;

2.16.12 to select teams for International and Representative matches at all levels and to arrange tours and to sanction matches in and regulate the transfer of players to and from the Republic of South Africa in terms of the FIFA Regulations;

- 2.16.13 to keep or cause to be kept, true accounts of all receipts, credits, payments, assets and liabilities of SAFA and all other matters necessary for showing the correct financial state of affairs of SAFA. The accounts shall be kept in such books and in such manner as the SAFA Council deems fit and to the satisfaction of the Auditors of SAFA;
- 2.16.14 to appoint auditors to audit annual accounts of SAFA;
- 2.16.15 to inquire into the administrative and/or financial affairs of Members, and, where necessary, to recommend corrective measures in this regard, and if these measures are not implemented to take over the administrative and/or financial affairs of the Member until these are placed on a satisfactory footing;
- 2.16.16 to appoint such sub-committees or commissions upon such terms as it may consider necessary to give effect to its powers;
- 2.16.17 to suspend, fine, terminate the membership of or otherwise deal with any Member, Local Football Association, Club or individual affiliated to SAFA or any of its Members for infringing the Constitution, regulations, policies, principles or resolutions of SAFA or for engaging in acts of misconduct, improper practices, misdemeanor, acts of defiance, or for bringing SAFA into disrepute.

Article 4      Recognition of Sport and Recreation South Africa's (SRSA) Bidding and Hosting Regulations

The following criteria will need to be considered in approving a bid to host an international event:

Legacy:            All events must demonstrate a post-bidding and post-event legacy for sport, regional and national development.

Finances:        No financial deficit or shortfall from the bidding and/or hosting process.

Business Plan: Sound administrative and financial management, including a detailed business plan.

Economic

Impact: Feasibility study on the cost benefits, including the economic impact.

Partnerships: Partnerships including all levels/spheres of government, tourism and hospitality industry, private sector, security, etc.

Community

Support: Community and organisational support from the host locality including Council and Executive Committee approval.

Environmental: Environmental impact study.

Corporate

Governance: Zero tolerance of corruption, and strict adherence to good corporate governance.

Applicants must adhere to the procedures strictly and must submit their applications to the offices of SASCOC's Bidding & Hosting office. This procedure is applicable to cities that bid to International Federations (IF's), World Bodies for Grand Prix, World Championships or other major international events, including international conferences.

Applicants need to thoroughly study the candidature procedures/protocols of the relevant International Federations, the International Olympic Committee, the International Paralympic Committee, the Commonwealth Games Federation, the Supreme Council for Sport in Africa, etc., and update themselves on the requirements applicable to bidding for, and hosting of such events.

This will ensure that all role-players are informed of the necessary obligations and mandates before contractual agreements are formalised and will obviate possible embarrassments at a later stage. Copies of candidature procedures/protocols on hosting or bidding for such an event must be submitted to SASCOC and SRSA.

Sport and Recreation South Africa is aware of the fact that hosting certain events (especially in the case of continental championships) are often allocated to South Africa without a prior bidding procedure, e.g. on a rotational basis. However, Sport and Recreation South Africa's clearance and approval, in the form of a letter of authorisation from the Minister of Sport, is still mandatory before the signing of any agreement between such an applicant / National Federation and the relevant Confederation.

When submitting candidature applications to Sport and Recreation South Africa, the applicant must:

- Provide proof that such an intention carries the support of the Executive and Council members of the National Federation concerned;
- Provide background information on the nature of the event, the objectives, expected benefits and possible economic impact to be derived from the staging of the event;

- Provide an explanation of how the event fits into the total sports development plan of the applicant and the priority rating attached to this in relation to other events / activities of the National Federation or organisation;
- Submit a feasibility analysis of the event, which must include statements on:
  - when last, if ever, such an event was staged in South Africa;
  - the level of technical expertise and the capacity of the National Federation/applicant to host such an event;
  - the duration of the event;
  - the number of athletes and officials involved;
  - the nature and standard of the facilities and equipment that will be required and which are in place at the time of the application;
  - inclusion of development opportunities and rural involvement (job opportunities);
  - transformation progress that the National Federation has undergone.
- Provide proof of the financial viability of the event, substantiated by a detailed income and expenditure (operational) budget that should include exact details of at least the following budget items:

INCOME	EXPENDITURE
Gate income	Preparation and submission of candidature
Entry / participation fees	Transport
Broadcasting Rights	Accommodation (athletes, officials, VIP guests)
Sponsorships: Donations/fund-raising International Federation contributions Sale of programmes Licensing / merchandising Contribution by athletes / federation	Equipment
	Insurance
	Marketing / Promotion
	Security
	Administration (salaries/wages, printing, stationery, telephone, fax, e-mails, postage, courier services)
	Medical services
	Gifts and souvenirs
	Athlete preparation
	Clothing / uniform / kit
	Pocket money
	Athlete fees

Provide a clear indication of the extent of the reliance of the host applicant / National Federation on Sport and Recreation South Africa for:

- Direct financial assistance for preparation and submission of the candidature, presentation of the event and/or underwriting the cost of the event;
- Organisational assistance;
- Other support services (e.g. consular, security, etc.);

- The income percentage ration: own contribution vs. government assistance required.

Provide exact details concerning the obligations expected from the host National Federation / applicant by the relevant International Federation, Confederation, etc. in terms of expenses of VIPs (international guests, officials), obligation on the host country's government to underwrite the cost of the event, etc.
